

Clan Gathering 2007 Supplement

Friday 20th July 2007 started off lovely and bright, around 11am saw the first trickle of visitor arrive at Hunterston, it was not long until the car park was well used and the crowds began to mingle, renewing old friendships and making new.

It did not seem like three years had passed since the last gathering.

The Castle soon rang with the voices of Americans, Canadians, New Zealanders, Dutch, English and even a few Scottish.

Time passed so quickly that it was soon time to sit down to our evening buffet supper, there was a large tent with tables and chairs to accommodate 90. This was now around 6.30pm so everyone was ready to eat and it was the quietest the whole day had been as they all tucked in.

After the meal we were entertained by "The Trabboch Players" (Hugh Robertson & Dennis Reid)

The Story Tellers
"The Trabboch Players"

who had us all enthralled with their stories about Ulrich MacWhirter and Willie Macrae with some of the members taking part to the merriment of the audience.

I'm afraid we had some unwelcome guests (THE MIDGES) so everyone was fanning themselves and plenty of repellent being used.

We finally dispersed about 9.30 ready for another full day on Saturday

The Clan Members were scattered about Ayrshire this year so some had a distance to travel to their accommodation.

Saturday morning saw another bright sky, the clan soon made their entrance ,ready to hear Madam Pauline's Address which was greatly received and started off the activities.

Madam Pauline bestowed “The Order of The Royal Huntsman” to three unsuspecting members

Thomas Hunter—Canada

James Gordon Hunter—UK

Beverly Arlene Sheirer—USA

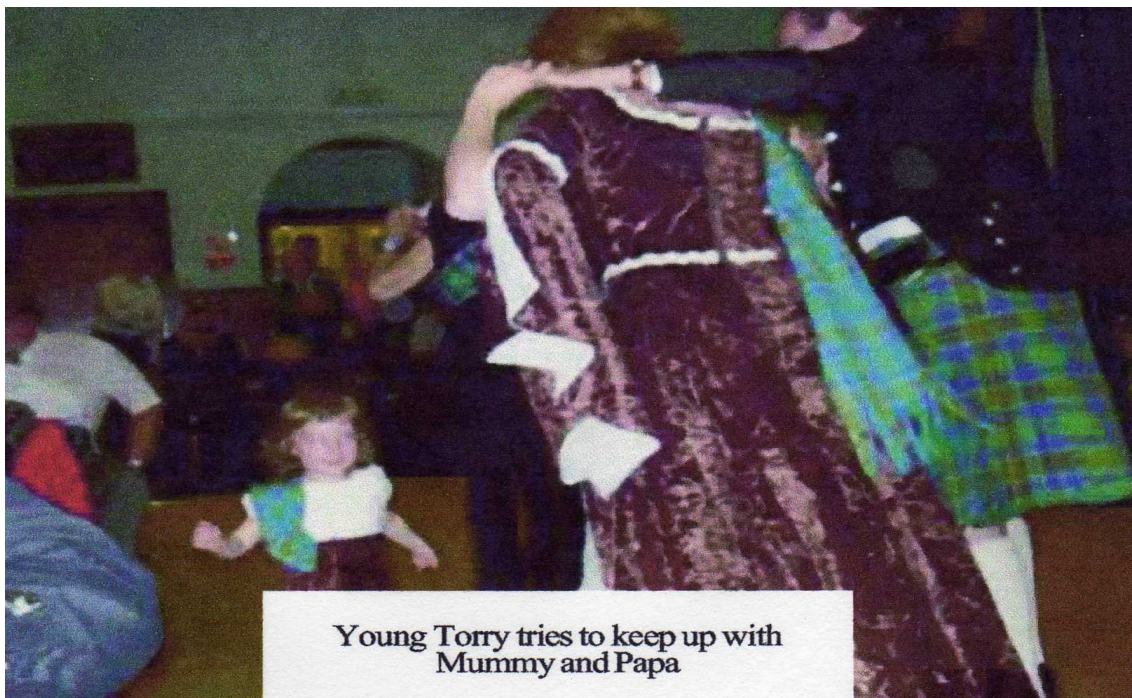

She also presented handmade candles to a member of each family attending commemorating the 900th Anniversary of the Hunters at Hunterston.

Saturday night we all met at the Masonic Hall for dinner in West Kilbride 7.pm for 7.30 a delicious meal was followed by entertainment from "Something Scottish" with everybody joining in with the Singing and dancing

Tom Hunter & Madam Sonia

Young Torry tries to keep up with Mummy and Papa

Yes this is the last day already but still plenty to see and do. Many looked around the Castle alone and others guided tours from Madam Pauline & Bill Hunter Janet Hunter was hard at work keeping everyone happy in the shop, the stock almost ran dry as souvenirs of the 900th Anniversary were in demand.

Outside we had The Isle of Cumbrae RBLs Pipe Band and The Rose Arnott School of Highland Dancers

And before Madam Pauline's closing address there was the walled garden to walk around and admire.
As you will see all the hard work from Ralston Ryder, Mary Ross and Angus (Madam Pauline's Brother) has paid off
